STATEMENT OF NONPARTISANSHIP

Election 2007: Vote for Homes! is a nonpartisan advocacy effort designed to elevate issues of housing, jobs, and services during the 2007 Philadelphia Mayoral campaign season and election.

The organizers of this effort are reaching out equally to candidates and engaging in general dialogue about issues and policies related to housing, jobs, and services. Through a candidates forum, general media outreach, a voters guide and other voter education, we will provide unbiased information on the candidates' positions on relevant issues to all our constituents and interested community members. There will be no endorsement of any candidates.

The Election 2007: Vote for Homes! Coalition is committed to carefully following legal guidelines for appropriate nonpartisan activities by nonprofit organizations. We have engaged legal counsel to review all activities during the election to ensure compliance with IRS and other relevant legal regulations. Sponsorship of or participation in this initiative should not violate any organization's (501)(c)(3) nonprofit status.
