MAIL-IN BALLOT INFORMATION

● NEW!!! – Mail Option: Mail-in ballots must now be postmarked June 2. You can bring your mail-in ballot to the post office today so they will be counted by Tuesday, April 9.

● Deliver by 8pm on Election Day: In Philadelphia, bring your mail-in ballot to 520 N. Delaware Ave or City Hall; see projecthome.org/primary2020 for neighborhood locations

● Check ballot status: www.votespa.com/MailBallotStatus

● If you cannot hand deliver your ballot to the Board of Elections: You can still go your polling location. Bring your ballot to your polling location, rip it up in front of an election worker, and vote in person.

● What if your mail-in ballot did not come in time? Anyone who requested a mail ballot can vote in person on a provisional (paper) ballot. You won’t be allowed to vote on the city’s new voting machines, but you can vote by paper ballot and it will be counted later.

NEED VOTER ID?
Voters only need ID if it is their first time voting at a new polling site.

WHO IS ON THE BALLOT?
